10:00 am Worship Service

Experience God. Grow Disciples. Transform Lives.

Welcome to worship at First Presbyterian Church of Wilmette! We're so glad you're here. Whether you're a long-time member or first-time visitor, we are blessed to have you with us. We hope joining us for worship today will nurture your heart and transform your mind. You are loved and never alone!

Our mission statement here is “Experience God. Grow Disciples. Transform Lives.” As a church, we strive to be about that simple and challenging work day after day, in season and out of season. The COVID-19 pandemic has dramatically altered our lives, but it has also revealed what is most important. As we lean into what the weeks and months ahead will be like, we will continue to pray for one another. We will keep growing as followers of Christ. We will keep loving and listening to our neighbors. We will keep the hand to plow, working to embody God's dream for the world. We will keep reminding ourselves that we are a work in progress.

As we resume in-person and livestreamed services, we are committed to keeping everyone safe and finding fresh and creative ways to worship together. We value your feedback – let us know what is going well and what could be better!

- A worship bulletin will be available (hardcopy in person or pdf online)
- Please join in the liturgy and prayers and passing of the peace, as directed
- Please linger and fellowship with one another after worship in the Fellowship Garden, we would be delighted to catch up with you!
- The offering plate will be available to place a cash or check gift in before or after the service
- We're so glad to be worshipping with you in person and online! You are loved and never alone, friends.

With gratitude in Christ,
Pastor Jeff Lehn

Spiritual Practice: Intercessory Prayer

Praying for People and Challenging Situations

Give yourself a few moments to breathe and become quiet in God's presence. Allow yourself the gift of enjoying the presence of God for your own soul's sake, and rest for a while in the familiarity and intimacy of your friendship with God. Then, as you are ready, allow God to bring others to your heart and mind—any person or situation that is of concern to you, someone who has asked for your prayers, any person or group of persons who has been harsh or critical or complaining, any situation that is causing you stress or requires wisdom. Imagine God asking you, “Is it okay for us to invite this person to join us (or for us to look at this situation together)?

If you are able to say yes, welcome that person into the space where you and God are communing, and be with that person (or situation) in God's presence. Listen for the prayer (the desire, the groaning) the Holy Spirit is already praying for that person or situation. Ask God, “How can I join you in that prayer?” See if there is anything God is inviting you to offer to that person or situation out of that prayer. Do not force or push for anything. If nothing comes, continue to rest in God relative to that situation. If wisdom or a next step does come, determine that you will respond faithfully as God makes your way clear.

If you notice resistance to inviting a person or situation into the time that you and God are sharing, feel free to tell God, “No, I'm not ready,” and then pay attention to that together. Even your resistance can have a lot to tell you about what is really going on inside you relative to the person or situation.

WELCOME AND COMMON LIFE

CALL TO WORSHIP (congregation please stand, rise in body or spirit)

Children of God: welcome!

Welcome to this place of love and grace,

Welcome to this place of hope and perseverance.

God invites all of us to be a part of the beloved community,

God invites all of us to share in the good news:

We are welcome, just as we are. We are loved, just as we are.

In gratitude for all of this, let us worship God.

OPENING HYMN NO. 393 – O Day of Rest and Gladness

ES FLOG EIN KLEINS WALDVÖGELEIN

CALL TO CONFESSION

God is gracious and merciful and knows our needs even before they reach our lips. Still, we engage in confession, admitting to God all that rests uneasily in our hearts. Confident of God's love, let us make our confession together, first in silent prayer...(silence is kept)...Let us pray now together:

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Gracious God, source of all life, Lord of mercy and grace, hear our prayer. We come before you in need of healing: the healing of our bodies and souls, the healing of our relationships, the healing of our pride and fear and apathy. We know that with you, nothing is impossible, not even our healing, Not even the restoration of the whole world. We pray that you will heal us, that you will heal our world, so that we will be freed to serve and love and dream and be, as Christ calls us. Amen.

ASSURANCE OF FORGIVENESS

Hear the good news: we are forgiven! We are set free to go out into the world and be the loving, gracious, hopeful people of God!

Thanks be to God! Amen.

CONGREGATIONAL RESPONSE (HYMN NO. 447) - We Are Forgiven

We are forgiven. We are forgiven.

Thanks be to God. Thanks be to God.

We are forgiven. We are forgiven.

Thanks be to God. Thanks be to God.

*PEACE OF CHRIST

Now, let us share with each other the peace that forgiveness brings, saying:

The peace of Christ be with you.

And also with you!

Children are invited to pass the peace and come forward and gather with Children's Chapel leaders.

PRAYER FOR OUR CHILDREN - Let us sing our prayer for the children as they move to their chapel time:

HYMN NO. 469 - Lord, Listen to Your Children Praying

Lord, listen to your children praying,
Lord, send your Spirit in this place.
Lord, listen to your children praying,
Send us love, send us power, send us grace.

SCRIPTURE READING

Psalm 46:1-11

This is the Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

SERMON - "Interrupted by Stillness"

Rev. Jeff Lehn

ANTHEM OF REFLECTION - Be Still and Know That I Am God

John L. Bell

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE AND THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

CALL TO OFFERING

ANTHEM - Kittery (The Lord's Prayer)

William Billings

[note: the name Kittery refers to a town in Maine where the composer resided when he wrote the tune. Naming tunes by town, village, etc. was common practice in early America]

CONGREGATIONAL RESPONSE - The Doxology - OLD HUNDREDTH

Praise God from whom all blessings flow; praise God all creatures here below;
Praise God above, ye heavenly host; praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Amen.

PRAYER OF DEDICATION

SENDING HYMN NO. 819 - Be Still, My Soul

FINLANDIA

CHARGE AND BENEDICTION

POSTLUDE - Fugue in C Major

Week of November 14th, 2021

Sunday's at fpcw

We gather for Sunday worship in the sanctuary at 10 am and we request that masks be worn. If you're joining us via Livestream, a video link will be included in the Saturday evening email. Peggy will begin prelude music at 9:50 am and we'll get underway after the prelude, so please join us as you're able.

“A Future with Hope” Giving Update: Week Two

Thank you to all who have submitted your financial commitment toward the life and ministry of our church in 2022! This year's theme is “A Future with Hope,” drawing on the beautiful promise of Jeremiah 29:11. If you have not yet pledged and wish to do so, the Giving Team kindly requests you do so via mail or online (website Stewardship page). As we begin week two of our pledge drive, we have received 64 pledges totaling $443,366. We are deeply grateful for your generosity. Thank you!

Nominating Committee News

The Session has empowered the Nominating Committee to resume meeting this week for the purposes of creating an Associate Pastor Nominating Committee (APNC). The new APNC will begin working regularly in 2022 to hire our next Associate Pastor. The APNC will be a team of 6-8 church members representing all ages and stages. If you or someone you know would be interested in serving on this very important team, please send your name or another's nomination to Elder Rick Baer at rickbaer2112@gmail.com.

There will be an informational meeting today, after worship in the Lounge for all interested individuals. Submitting your name does not commit you to the process. Learn more at the meeting today.

Community Presentation and Forum on

Critical Race Theory: What it is; What it is not.

Speaker: Dr. Avery Smith*, Professor of Philosophy at Loyola University

Date: Sunday, November 28, 2021, 4-5:30 pm In-person and on Zoom

Host: Racial Justice Committee of the First Presbyterian Church of Wilmette

Where: In-person at First Pres in Wallace Moore Fellowship Center (masks required)

Zoom link requires invitation – please email Rev. Laura Sherwood

(lshserwood@fpcw.org) to be added to the Zoom invite list.

Open to all members of the Church and community.

The purpose of the November 28 program is to inform our community about critical race theory. Following Dr. Smith's presentation, she hopes to engage in dialogue with those in attendance and answer questions about this highly controversial topic. Questions about this program? Please contact a member of the FPCW Racial Justice Committee. Mary Watt, Carolyn and Pete Holterman, Laura Lyman, Bob Bobesink, and Bill Bishop

*Avery Merriel Smith is faculty in the Department of Philosophy at Loyola University Chicago. In 2017 she completed her PhD in Philosophy at the Pontifical Gregorian University in Rome, Italy. Her specializations are 20th Century Continental Philosophy, ethics, and metaphysics. She has had careers in Corporate America and the United Nations, which have influenced her research focus: human relationship, corporate ethics, and Critical Race Theory. Dr. Smith is currently under contract with Palgrave Macmillan for the publication of her manuscript entitled Black America and Existential Incompatibility, A Phenomenological Approach Toward Ethical Solutions for Problem Groups, which will be published in the first quarter of 2022.

Advent Engagement Opportunities

It's the most wonderful time of the year and one in which we can count our blessings and share some cheer with those in our community who are in need. This year the FPCW Giving Tree will be both live and "virtual." Wish lists have been submitted by three of our mission partners: Orchard Village, Family Promise, and Erie House. All gifts purchased this year can be dropped off at FPCW in one of the drop boxes set up in the parking lot lobby. Gifts should be unwrapped and clearly marked with recipient name (if required), residence (Orchard Village recipients), and agency name. The suggested dollar amount per recipient/gift is $35-40.

You can find the Sign Up Genius link to access gift requests for Orchard Village and Family Promise in the Tuesday Daily Bread as well as on the News & Publications page on our website. The Erie House gift tags will be on the Giving Tree in the narthex.

All purchased gifts should be dropped off at FPCW no later than Sunday, November 28, 2021. There will be drop boxes set up in the downstairs parking lot lobby. Please contact Mary Watt (mhw1117@gmail.com) with any questions.

Poinsettias

Help beautify the church during Advent season by buying a poinsettia in memory of a loved one or in appreciation of a special person. The cost is $15 per plant. Order forms are available in your Sunday bulletin and the church office. Orders are due in the church office by Sunday, November 28th.

Usher in Advent with...

Advent Lessons & Carols service

Sunday, December 5, 2021, 4:00 pm

Followed by our traditional Wassail Party outside in the church parking lot.

NOTE: there will be no 10:00 am worship service this day!

Advent Family Workshop, Sunday, November 21st, following worship. Gather with families under the heat lamps outside for coffee/cocoa, pick up an Advent calendar and family devotional, and make a special craft to take home and use all Advent long!

Christmas Pageant 2021

Sunday, December 19th, during worship we will have a special treat. Like last year we will present a one of a kind Christmas pageant performed by our Mid-Week Meet-Up kiddos. Written and directed by Lindley Traynor and musical direction by Peggy Massello. This year's pageant will be a video presented during worship. You won't want to miss this creative and unique Christmas pageant.

Gift-Wrapping Events. Please join us at one of two scheduled sessions to wrap 75 Giving Tree gifts (purchased by church members) for children at Erie House. The wrapping events will take place on Sunday, November 28th at 11:00 a.m., immediately following worship, and on Saturday, December 4th at 9:30 a.m., immediately following the decorating of the church for Christmas. Both gift-wrapping events will be held in Wallace Moore, where there will be plenty of room to socially distance. All wrapping supplies will be provided.

Homemade Holiday Cards. Feeling creative? This year, a homemade holiday card will accompany each of the delivered Giving Tree gifts—and we would love your help making them! This is a great activity for young and old alike. Holiday card kits consisting of 5 blank cards are available for pick-up in the narthex, next to the Giving Tree. Since gift recipients represent a variety of faith backgrounds, cards should be decorated in a festive, but non-religious manner. Please return decorated cards to the labeled basket in the narthex by Sunday, November 28th.

Calling all American (or British bakers)! It's cookie week!

Too soon?? We know it's hard to think of Christmas already, but the deacons are planning ahead. Please mark your calendars for the week of December 5-9 to bake and drop off 2-3 dozen cookies for the deacons to distribute to our almost 50 members who receive deacon care. Cookies can be dropped off in the upstairs kitchen of the church, off the narthex. Thanks!! Please email or text Sue Sklansky if you can help. ssklansky@fpcw.org 312-608-4909

In Memoriam

Long-time, staff member, faithful friend, and devoted member of fpcw, Shirley Lahr, passed away on Sunday, November 7th, she was 96 years old. Shirley's family plans to honor their mother with a private burial service in Des Plaines, Illinois.

Shirley was a committed volunteer and spent many years offering her support to Meals on Wheels as well as 25 years on the Women's Board of Presbyterian Homes volunteering two days a week at Pres. Homes in Evanston, Illinois.

Donations in memory of Shirley Lahr may be sent to Meals on Wheels an organization Shirley actively supported. The Meals on Wheels website has an easy option for donations.

Please hold Shirley and her family in your prayers.

If you wish to send a card and express your condolences please reach out to Madeline Weston in the church office for the family's address.
