FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF WILMETTE
Easter Sunday
Sunday, April 17, 2022
9:00 a.m. and 11:00 a.m. Worship Service
Experience God. Grow Disciples. Transform Lives.

Welcome to worship at First Presbyterian Church of Wilmette! We're so glad you're here. Whether you're a long-time member or first-time visitor, we are blessed to have you with us. We hope joining us for worship today will nurture your heart and transform your mind. You are loved and never alone!

Our mission statement here is “Experience God. Grow Disciples. Transform Lives.” As a church, we strive to be about that simple and challenging work day after day, in season and out of season. The COVID-19 pandemic has dramatically altered our lives, but it has also revealed what is most important. As we lean into what the weeks and months ahead will be like, we will continue to pray for one another. We will keep growing as followers of Christ. We will keep loving and listening to our neighbors. We will keep the hand to plow, working to embody God's dream for the world. We will keep reminding ourselves that we are a work in progress.

As we continue both in-person and livestreamed services, we are committed to keeping everyone safe and finding fresh and creative ways to worship together. We value your feedback – let us know what is going well and what could be better!

- A worship bulletin will be available (hardcopy in person or pdf online)
- Please join in the liturgy and prayers and passing of the peace, as directed
- The offering plate will be available to place a cash or check gift in before or after the service
- Join us after worship in the Wallace Moore Fellowship Center for fellowship and coffee

We're so glad to be worshipping with you in person and online! You are loved and never alone, friends.

With gratitude in Christ,

Pastors Jeff Lehn and Laura Sherwood

Spiritual Practice:

Take an “Awe Walk” (Solo or with Family/Friends)

We're on the verge of spring! It's a great time to try the spiritual practice of taking an “Awe Walk.” You can do it by yourself or with others. The practice is simple. Take a walk in your neighborhood or through a park or forest preserve nearby. Ask God for an open heart, open mind and open body to receive the beauty and wonder of creation. What do you notice? Up high? Down low? What do you smell? What sounds do you hear? Which people or animals did you observe? What gives you awe and wonder? Where do you see God's beauty?

The experience of awe leads us so naturally to what Anne Lamott calls “the third great prayer, Wow.” She says, “Wonder takes our breath away, and makes room for new breath.” It wakes us up to the presence of the God we seek in every moment.

ENTRANCE OF THE LIGHT

The Acolyte brings in the light to remind us that we have gathered in the light of Christ.

WELCOME AND COMMON LIFE

EASTER SUNDAY - OPENING LITANY AND PROGRESSIVE DISPLAY

FOR THE BEAUTY OF THE EARTH: TRANSFORMED CREATION (I Cor. 5:17-19a)

We have walked together on this year's journey of Lent, through the days of Holy Week, and have arrived on this glorious Easter morning...

... For all of God's creation being restored to the way God intended it to be – full of life and beauty.

A beeswax Easter egg candle is lighted on each tier for the six aspects of creation highlighted in Lent:

Air and Sky; Water, Rivers, Streams, and Oceans; Trees and Plants; Birds and Animals; Humans Caring for the Earth;

All of Creation as God intended—full of life and beauty.

EASTER PRAYER (unison):

For you so loved the world, the cosmos, Holy God, that you gave your only begotten Son, so that all who believe in him will not perish, but will have eternal life. We, along with all Creation, listen for the Resurrected One calling our name. We await the Risen Christ opening our eyes to see Earth's crucified body transformed to new life. Amen.

OPENING HYMN NO. 232 Jesus Christ Is Risen Today, verses 1, 2 & 4

EASTER HYMN

CALL TO CONFESSION (Congregation may be seated)

When the women first encountered the empty tomb and the risen Christ, they were flabbergasted.

“How could this be?” they wondered. They were afraid, yet they summoned their faith.

They were doubtful, yet they persevered. In the same spirit, let us confess our brokenness, yet strive for our Easter faith, first in silent prayer... (silence is kept)...

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (unison)

Now, let us pray together:

Gracious and gritty God, even as we sing of Christ's resurrection and the promise of new life, we know things are not the way they are supposed to be in your world. We have hurt ourselves and others. We have chased after appearance, affluence and achievement. We have missed the life that is truly life. We have been complicit in hoarding more than our share. Please forgive us.

Please empower us. Open up a new and hopeful future. Invade our hearts and lives with your self-giving love and transform us into new people.

We are yours, now and always. Amen.

ASSURANCE OF FORGIVENESS

Christ is alive and all things are being made new! Because of Christ, the old is gone and the new has come.

Because of Christ, grace is really true. Because of Christ, reconciliation is possible.

Friends, believe the good news of the gospel!

Christ is risen! Thanks be to God.

SHARING THE PEACE OF CHRIST

Now, let us share with each other the peace that forgiveness brings, saying:

The peace of Christ be with you!

And also with you.

Today is a Family Worship Sunday - children please stay in worship with your families.

Children's Chapel will resume next Sunday.

CONGREGATIONAL RESPONSE (Hymn No. 14, verse 5)

For thyself, best gift divine to the world so freely given;

For that great, great love of thine, peace on earth and joy in heaven:

Lord of all, to thee we raise this our hymn of grateful praise.

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION

God of all life, we come to worship on Easter morning eager to hear the old and familiar words of hope.

Save us from letting those words fall too soft and easy because they are so familiar. Like the lilies before us, may we open our hearts wide to hear them fresh. We don't ask them to be emptied of mystery.

We ask only that we might stand under their wonder. In Christ our risen Lord, we pray. Amen.

SCRIPTURE READING - John 20:1-18 (pg. 114 in the New Testament)

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God!

SERMON "One Word, Two Syllables, and the Easter Turn"

Rev. Jeff Lehn

HYMN OF RESPONSE NO. 248 - Christ Is Risen! Shout Hosanna!

HYMN TO JOY

Affirmation of Faith (drawn from 1 Corinthians 15)

This is the good news which we have received, in which we stand, and by which we are saved, if we hold it fast:

that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures, that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day, and that he appeared first to the women, then to Peter, and to the twelve, and then to many faithful witnesses.

Christ is alive, the first and the last, the one who defeated death a long time ago and gives new life to all today. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE AND THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors;
and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

Anthem Christ the Lord Is Risen Today

Dan Forrest

CALL FOR OFFERING AND ONE GREAT HOUR OF SHARING SPECIAL OFFERING

As we gather our gifts and offer them to God, may we do so in gratitude and praise.
*We invite you to give via our church website www.fpcw.org, our smartphone app, or by sending a check to the church office.
An offering plate is also available in the Narthex.*

CONGREGATIONAL RESPONSE - THE DOXOLOGY (LASST UNS ERFREUEN)

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; Praise God all creatures here below;
Alleluia, Alleluia. Praise God above, ye heavenly host; Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost.
Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

PRAYER OF DEDICATION

Abundant God, we know it is more blessed to give than to receive.
You are the absolute owner of all things, and we are stewards of your gifts for a time.
It's our joy to return a portion of what you've entrusted to us. May our gifts do awesome things in your world, for the last, the lost and the least, things only you can imagine.
All we have is yours this Easter. We are yours. Amen.

HYMN - Hallelujah Chorus from Messiah

G. F. Handel

(a copy can be found in your pew rack - please put back at the conclusion of the service)

CHARGE AND BENEDICTION

FOLLOWING THE LIGHT

The Acolyte carries the light as we go out, to remind us that we both follow and carry Christ's Light into the World.

There will be one Fellowship Hour after the 9 am worship service.

One Great
HOUR OF SHARING

For over 70 years, One Great Hour of Sharing has provided Presbyterians a way to share God's love with our neighbors in need around the world. The three programs supported by One Great Hour of Sharing - Presbyterian Disaster Assistance, the Presbyterian Hunger Program, and Self-Development of People - all work in different ways to serve individuals and communities in need to provide people with safety, sustenance, and hope.

WAYS TO GIVE

- Through your congregation
- Donate by credit card online at pcusa.org/give-oghs
- Text OGHs to 91999 to give
- Make an online gift at any time throughout the year. Checks may be sent to Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.); P.O. Box 643700; Pittsburgh, PA 15264-3700.

Y'all Don't Want to Miss the Tower Senior High Benefit Dinner!

Sunday, April 24 at 5:00 PM in WMFC at fpcw

A night of fun for the whole family including a lasagna dinner, games, prizes, and an auction and, —it's free to attend! Our theme this year is "country" - so plan to wear a cowboy hat, boots, plaid...you get the picture!

All proceeds go to support the youth Work Trip. This summer we are going to help re-build homes in Ronceverte, WV. Please consider attending and/or donating to the Benefit Dinner to support our youth. We will have a bunch of great items in the auction, some of which are listed below:

- Vacation home in Galena
- A variety of sports tickets
- Baskets of all kinds: wine, books, cocktails, dinners
- Original artwork
- Golf outing

Silent Auction

...And more!

The Racial Justice Committee is encouraging FPCW members to join in the One Book, Everyone Reads annual reading program sponsored by the Wilmette Public Library. This year, librarians have chosen Three Girls from Bronzeville: A Uniquely American Memoir of Race, Fate and Sisterhood written by Dawn Turner, former columnist and reporter for The Chicago Tribune.

Publishers' Weekly described the book as a “beautiful, tragic and inspiring memoir” about three Black girls from the storied Bronzeville section of Chicago. The book offers a penetrating exploration of race, opportunity, friendship sisterhood and the powerful forces at work that allow some to flourish...and others to falter.

Members of the FPCW congregation will have at least two opportunities to gather for group discussions about the book. Carol Korak's book group that meets monthly has selected Three Girls from Bronzeville as the subject of their April 20 discussion. All FPCW members are invited to join the 7 pm meeting at the church in the Upper Room in-person/Zoom. Then on Wednesday, May 11, members can come together for dinner at the church at 5:45 pm and then watch the library-sponsored on-line conversation between author Dawn Turner and Alex Kotlowitz, American journalist and best selling writer (no reservations needed). Kotlowitz is probably best known for his 1991 book There Are No Children Here that chronicles the experiences of two brothers growing up in Chicago's Henry Horner Homes. FPCW members are invited to stay around after the conversation to share in a discussion of the program.

The Wilmette library has paper and eBook copies of the book, as well as books on CD and downloadable audio. There is also a copy in the FPCW office available for borrowing. Additionally, the library is offering a number of supplemental programs in support of the reading selection, including:

SPECIAL PRESENTATION - SUNDAY, MAY 1ST, 4:00 P.M.

In-Person and on Zoom—Wallace Moore Fellowship Center.

HEROS Speaker: Laurie Elkins

Open to the Congregation and Community

As part of our effort to continue our commitment and conversation about racial reform issues, we would like to invite you to a program that we are sponsoring on Sunday, May 1 at 4 p.m. We have invited a speaker from HEROS that is a local working group of students, parents, teachers and neighbors who are seeking to Heal Everyday Racism in Our Schools (HEROS). The group self-organized in 2018 and their goal is to make New Trier and its feeder schools more just, inclusive and equitable places for all.

Our speaker on May 1st, will be Laurie Elkins, a longtime resident of Wilmette who raised her two daughters in this community, both of whom are New Trier graduates. Laurie is a civil rights attorney, specializing in employment discrimination. In addition to litigating employment discrimination cases, Laurie has conducted extensive training on race, and disability discrimination. She has been part of the HEROS organization for the past three years.

We hope you will consider attend this important and informative presentation about the bold and courageous steps people in our own community are taking to address everyday racism and discrimination.

First Pres Racial Justice Committee

Adult Faith Formation—Sundays 8:30a.m. In-person and on Zoom Led by Pastor Jeff Lehn in the Upper room

New, 6-week series begins April 24th.

Study of Amy Jill-Levine's recent book, "The Difficult Words of Jesus" (check it out here!) You are invited to join us for this formative time to wrestle with and live out the most head-scratching and demanding of Jesus' teachings.

April 24th - May 29th (8:30 - 9:30 am)

FPCW's Mission Committee is pleased to share the good news about the success of our matching gift program in support of the Ukrainian refugee relief effort through PDA (Presbyterian Disaster Assistance.). We exceeded our donation goal of $10,000 with a match from the Mission Committee. Thank you to everyone for your generous donations which we continue to receive. We are very grateful to be able to channel humanitarian relief funds to the people of Ukraine.

Fellowship Hour - Could you host one Sunday?

We gather every Sunday after the worship service for our long-standing tradition of Fellowship Hour. We are in need of individuals, families, or committees to take on the Fellowship Hour hosting role for one Sunday. It's easy to do - bring cookies and help with the coffee, it's just that simple. Fellowship Hour is a wonderful opportunity for the congregation to gather with old friends and greet visitors. The SignUp Genius link is available on the News and Publications page of our website www.fpcw.org and in the Tuesday, Daily Bread.

PROGRAMMING FOR CHILDREN AND YOUTH – Week of April 17, 2022

Children's Chapel for children ages 3 yrs. - 6th grade - Not meeting today

After the Sharing of the Peace, children ages PreK - 6th grade are invited to either remain in the sanctuary with their families, or move to the chapel for an age-appropriate time of worship, lead by Lindley Traynor (ltraynor@fpcw.org), Dir. of Children & Family Ministries, and Scott McElhenie (youth@fpcw.org), Dir of Youth and Family Ministries. This is a meaningful time of encountering God and connecting with each other through simple liturgy, songs, prayer, and the stories of our faith. Children return to sit with their families toward the end of the service in the sanctuary.

7th and 8th Grade Youth Group and Confirmation Class - Not meeting today

Sundays 11:00 am-12:00 noon in Purple Room (2nd floor). All 7th and 8th graders are invited to join the group which will include activities and discussion to help dive into the meaning of our faith and how faith applies to our lives. 8th graders will have additional opportunities to reflect on their desire and readiness to be confirmed as active members of the church. Contact Pastor Laura Sherwood, lsherwood@fpcw.org.

TOWER Senior High Youth – Sundays 5:00 - 7:00 pm - Not meeting today

Senior High Youth gather at 5:00 pm in the Tower for a devotion ("For the Beauty of the Earth" by Leah D. Schade) and fellowship. Dinner at 6:00pm in WMFC..

Questions? Contact: Scott McElhenie, youth@fpcw.org

Mid-Week Meet-Up - Wednesdays 4:45-5:45 pm - Meeting April 20th activity and music (singers and ringers) followed by dinner provided in Wallace Moore Fellowship Center.
