FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF WILMETTE
Sunday, November 13, 2022
Family Worship Sunday
10:00 am Worship Service in the Sanctuary
Experience God. Grow Disciples. Transform Lives.

Welcome to worship at First Presbyterian Church of Wilmette! We're so glad you're here. Whether you're a long-time member or first-time visitor, we are blessed to have you with us. We hope joining us for worship today will nurture your heart and transform your mind. You are loved and never alone!

Our mission statement here is “Experience God. Grow Disciples. Transform Lives.” As a church, we strive to be about that simple and challenging work day after day, in season and out of season. The COVID-19 pandemic has dramatically altered our lives, but it has also revealed what is most important. As we lean into what the weeks and months ahead will be like, we will continue to pray for one another. We will keep growing as followers of Christ. We will keep loving and listening to our neighbors. We will keep the hand to plow, working to embody God's dream for the world. We will keep reminding ourselves that we are a work in progress.

As we continue both in-person and livestreamed services, we are committed to keeping everyone safe and finding fresh and creative ways to worship together. We value your feedback – let us know what is going well and what could be better!

- A worship bulletin will be available (hardcopy in person or pdf online)
- Please join in the liturgy and prayers and passing of the peace, as directed
- The offering plate will be available to place a cash or check gift in before or after the service
- Join us after worship in the Lounge for Fellowship Hour

We're so glad to be worshipping with you in person and online! You are loved and never alone, friends.

With gratitude in Christ,

Pastors Jeff Lehn and Laura Sherwood

Spiritual Practice: Intercessory Prayer Praying for People and Challenging Situations

Give yourself a few moments to breathe and become quiet in God's presence. Allow yourself the gift of enjoying the presence of God for your own soul's sake, and rest for a while in the familiarity and intimacy of your friendship with God. Then, as you are ready, allow God to bring others to your heart and mind—any person or situation that is of concern to you, someone who has asked for your prayers, any person or group of persons who has been harsh or critical or complaining, any situation that is causing you stress or requires wisdom. Imagine God asking you, “Is it okay for us to invite this person to join us (or for us to look at this situation together)?

If you are able to say yes, welcome that person into the space where you and God are communing, and be with that person (or situation) in God's presence. Listen for the prayer (the desire, the groaning) the Holy Spirit is already praying for that person or situation. Ask God, “How can I join you in that prayer?” See if there is anything God is inviting you to offer to that person or situation out of that prayer. Do not force or push for anything. If nothing comes, continue to rest in God relative to that situation. If wisdom or a next step does come, determine that you will respond faithfully as God makes your way clear.

If you notice resistance to inviting a person or situation into the time that you and God are sharing, feel free to tell God, “No, I'm not ready,” and then pay attention to that together. Even your resistance can have a lot to tell you about what is really going on inside you relative to the person or situation.

PRELUDE - Pastoral
Variations on AZMON

David Lasky
Various Composers

ENTRANCE OF THE LIGHT

The Acolyte brings in the light to remind us that we have gathered in the light of Christ.

WELCOME AND COMMON LIFE

CALL TO WORSHIP (based on Psalm 108)

We will give thanks to you, O Lord, among the peoples, and we will sing praises to you among the nations.

Our hearts are steadfast, O God.

We will sing and make melody.

For your steadfast love is higher than the heavens,
and your faithfulness reaches to the clouds.

Be exalted, O God, above the heavens,
and let your glory be over all the earth!

OPENING HYMN NO. 63 - *The Lord Is God

AZMON

CALL TO CONFESSION

The God revealed to us through scripture is a merciful and loving God, who directs us to love one another as Christ has loved us. We gather to ask God's help in removing all barriers to that love.

Come now to confess all that separates you from others, from God, and even from your true self.

Let us begin with silent prayer... And now let us pray in unison:

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (unison)

Loving God, we come before you in need of your mercy and forgiveness.

We've been reluctant to face the central sins of our lives.

We settle for confessing those things we really don't mind changing.

Or, sometimes we go through the motions of confessing the systemic sins of our society, without feeling any genuine responsibility for them. Our common confession in worship can be for us a routine that we endure, that leaves us unchanged. Forgive us, Lord.

Help us to seek in earnest to become the people you have created and called us to be.

Help us to recognize and accept the cost of discipleship. Help us to be honest with ourselves and with you. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

ASSURANCE OF FORGIVENESS

With the sound of water pouring into the baptismal font, we are reminded of the eternal promises of our faith. So, let us fear not, sisters and brothers, God, who is full of grace and abounding in steadfast love, meets us in our sin and transforms us for God's glory and the healing of God's world. In the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, your sins are forgiven, be now at peace.

Thanks be to God! Amen.

SHARING THE PEACE OF CHRIST

The peace of Christ be with you! And also with you!

(Congregation is invited to share signs of peace with one another by staying at your seat or walking around.)

ANTHEM - Amen Siakudumisa (Amen, Sing Praises to the Lord)

S. C. Molefe

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION

Eternal God, help us to experience the truth that the Bible is not just ancient literature, but is your living Word. Speak to us through these stories of our ancestors in faith. Weave your stories into our own, so that we will recognize our place in your plan for the world, and the place that you desire to have in our lives. In Christ's name we pray. Amen

SCRIPTURE READINGS - Micah 5:2-5a, 6:6-8 (pp. 865 and 866 In the Old Testament)

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God!

SERMON

Rev. Jeff Lehn

HYMN OF RESPONSE NO. 70 - What Does the Lord Require of You?

MOON

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE AND THE LORD'S PRAYER (unison)

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors;
and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM - Let Justice Roll Like a River

Marty Haugen

LET JUSTICE ROLL LIKE A RIVER

Marty Haugen

Refrain:

Let jus - tice roll like a riv - er, and wash all op - pres - sion a - way; Come, O
God, and take us, move and shake us,
Come now, and make us a - new, that we might live just - ly like you.

CALL FOR OFFERING

God has abundantly blessed us, and God calls us to be a community that extends that blessing to others through the sharing of our love, our talents, and our material resources. We have many ways to serve, and multiple ways to make a financial contribution - please consult your bulletin or the slide on your screen. Let us bring God our offerings with joy, and with gratitude for all the ways in which God lovingly cares for us.

*CONGREGATIONAL RESPONSE - The Doxology (OLD HUNDREDTH)

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God all creatures here below.
Praise God above, ye heavenly host;
Creator, Christ, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

*PRAYER OF DEDICATION (unison)

Loving God, there is nothing we can offer you that even begins to compare with all that you give to us. So we come humbly before you, and offer you what we can - our praise, our thanks, our devotion, and a small portion of our worldly resources. Make our offering acceptable in your sight this morning, Lord. Use it to further your purposes within our world, and within us. Help us to grow as Christ's disciples so that we offer our very lives as a holy and living offering to you. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

MISSION TESTIMONY - Family Promise

Fethiya Idris, Executive Director

*SENDING HYMN NO. 749 - Come! Live in the Light!

WE ARE CALLED

*FOLLOWING THE LIGHT

The Acolyte carries the light as we go out, to remind us that we both follow and carry Christ's Light into the World.

*Responsive Charge and Benediction Jeff (steps or Lectern) and Liturgist (pulpit)

Pastor: God has shown us what is good. What does the Lord require of us but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with our God?

Liturgist: To do justice in our community, in our workplaces, and in our world.

Congregation: Even when justice is inconvenient, is met with resistance, and requires sacrifice.

Liturgist: To love kindness expressed in acts both big and small,

Congregation: And to people of all races, abilities, ages, and beliefs.

Liturgist: To walk humbly with our God in all the circumstances of our lives,

Congregation: With praise and gratitude in our hearts.

Pastor: And may the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that you may abound in hope by the power of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

OUR CALL TO RACIAL JUSTICE: Racial Microaggressions

Have you ever heard the term “death by a thousand cuts?” This is a metaphor for the racial microaggressions aimed at people of color constantly and continually throughout their lives. The term microaggression is defined as “an instance of indirect, subtle, or unintentional discrimination against members of a marginalized group such as a racial or ethnic minority.” Studies show that the macro impact of microaggressions can “increase stress in the lives of people of color, lower emotional well-being, increase depression and negative feelings, assail the mental health of recipients, impede learning and problem-solving, impair employee performance and take a heavy toll on the physical well-being of targets.(1)” Learning how to recognize, acknowledge and stop microaggressions is a way we can show love and compassion to those around us. Please check out our website or the Daily Bread to access the links.

THE RACIAL JUSTICE COMMITTEE

Is exploring the possibility of sponsoring a civil rights history pilgrimage in the fall 2023, including visits to Atlanta, Birmingham, Selma, and Montgomery. The three-day journey will include visits to landmarks from the American Civil Rights movement, giving us the opportunity to better understand our past and current national identity. During our time together, we plan to travel, dine, learn, pray, reflect and connect with one another. If this is something that might interest you, please join us for an informational meeting in the Chapel after worship on Sunday, November 13. The trip will be open to individuals, couples, and families. We are interested in getting your ideas about the trip and how we can best prepare for the journey ahead as we are just getting started in our planning. Questions about the meeting or preliminary plans? Please contact Mary Watt at mhw1117@gmail.com.
