FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF WILMETTE

Sunday, November 6, 2022

All Saints' Sunday and Communion

10:00 am Worship Service in the Sanctuary

Experience God. Grow Disciples. Transform Lives.

Welcome to worship at First Presbyterian Church of Wilmette! We're so glad you're here. Whether you're a long-time member or first-time visitor, we are blessed to have you with us. We hope joining us for worship today will nurture your heart and transform your mind. You are loved and never alone!

Our mission statement here is “Experience God. Grow Disciples. Transform Lives.” As a church, we strive to be about that simple and challenging work day after day, in season and out of season. The COVID-19 pandemic has dramatically altered our lives, but it has also revealed what is most important. As we lean into what the weeks and months ahead will be like, we will continue to pray for one another. We will keep growing as followers of Christ. We will keep loving and listening to our neighbors. We will keep the hand to plow, working to embody God's dream for the world. We will keep reminding ourselves that we are a work in progress.

As we continue both in-person and livestreamed services, we are committed to keeping everyone safe and finding fresh and creative ways to worship together. We value your feedback – let us know what is going well and what could be better!

- A worship bulletin will be available (hardcopy in person or pdf online)
- Please join in the liturgy and prayers and passing of the peace, as directed
- The offering plate will be available to place a cash or check gift in before or after the service
- Join us after worship in the Lounge for Fellowship Hour

We're so glad to be worshipping with you in person and online! You are loved and never alone, friends.

With gratitude in Christ,

Pastors Jeff Lehn and Laura Sherwood

Spiritual Practice: Intercessory Prayer Praying for People and Challenging Situations

Give yourself a few moments to breathe and become quiet in God's presence. Allow yourself the gift of enjoying the presence of God for your own soul's sake, and rest for a while in the familiarity and intimacy of your friendship with God. Then, as you are ready, allow God to bring others to your heart and mind—any person or situation that is of concern to you, someone who has asked for your prayers, any person or group of persons who has been harsh or critical or complaining, any situation that is causing you stress or requires wisdom. Imagine God asking you, “Is it okay for us to invite this person to join us (or for us to look at this situation together)?

If you are able to say yes, welcome that person into the space where you and God are communing, and be with that person (or situation) in God's presence. Listen for the prayer (the desire, the groaning) the Holy Spirit is already praying for that person or situation. Ask God, “How can I join you in that prayer?” See if there is anything God is inviting you to offer to that person or situation out of that prayer. Do not force or push for anything. If nothing comes, continue to rest in God relative to that situation. If wisdom or a next step does come, determine that you will respond faithfully as God makes your way clear.

If you notice resistance to inviting a person or situation into the time that you and God are sharing, feel free to tell God, “No, I'm not ready,” and then pay attention to that together. Even your resistance can have a lot to tell you about what is really going on inside you relative to the person or situation.

ENTRANCE OF THE LIGHT

The Acolyte brings in the light to remind us that we have gathered in the light of Christ.

WELCOME AND COMMON LIFE

*CALL TO WORSHIP (based on Psalm 108)

We will give thanks to you, O Lord, among the peoples,
and we will sing praises to you among the nations.

Our hearts are steadfast, O God.

We will sing and make melody.

For your steadfast love is higher than the heavens,
and your faithfulness reaches to the clouds.

Be exalted, O God, above the heavens,
and let your glory be over all the earth!

*OPENING HYMN NO. 730 - I Sing a Song of the Saints of God

GRAND ISLE

CALL TO CONFESSION

The God revealed to us through scripture is a merciful and loving God, who directs us to love one another as Christ has loved us. We gather to ask God's help in removing all barriers to that love.

Come now to confess all that separates you from others, from God, and even from your true self.

Let us begin with silent prayer... And now let us pray in unison:

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (unison)

Loving God, we come before you in need of your mercy and forgiveness.

We've been reluctant to face the central sins of our lives.

We settle for confessing those things we really don't mind changing.

Or, sometimes we go through the motions of confessing the systemic sins of our society, without feeling any genuine responsibility for them. Our common confession in worship can be for us a routine that we endure, that leaves us unchanged. Forgive us, Lord.

Help us to seek in earnest to become the people you have created and called us to be.

Help us to recognize and accept the cost of discipleship. Help us to be honest with ourselves and with you. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

ASSURANCE OF FORGIVENESS

With the sound of water pouring into the baptismal font, we are reminded of the eternal promises of our faith. So, let us fear not, sisters and brothers, God, who is full of grace and abounding in steadfast love, meets us in our sin and transforms us for God's glory and the healing of God's world. In the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, your sins are forgiven, be now at peace.

Thanks be to God! Amen.

*SHARING THE PEACE OF CHRIST

The peace of Christ be with you! And also with you!

(Congregation is invited to share signs of peace with one another by staying at your seat or walking around.)

CHILDREN’S CHAPEL

Children are invited to share the peace and gather with leaders to go to the Chapel to continue to worship together in an age-appropriate and meaningful way. They will return to sit with their families toward the end of worship service in the Sanctuary.

CONGREGATIONAL RESPONSE - *This is Where Children Belong

This, this is where children belong, welcomed as part of the worshipping throng.

Water, God’s word, bread and cup, prayer and song;

This is where children belong.

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION

Eternal God, help us to experience the truth that the Bible is not just ancient literature, but is your living Word. Speak to us through these stories of our ancestors in faith. Weave your stories into our own, so that we will recognize our place in your plan for the world, and the place that you desire to have in our lives. In Christ’s name we pray. Amen

SCRIPTURE READINGS - 1 Thessalonians 3:1-9 (pg. 204 in the New Testament)

This is the Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God!

ANTHEM - *Lux Aeterna from Requiem

John Rutter

I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, “Blessed. Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord. For they rest, for they rest from their labors”

“Even so”, saith the Spirit. For they rest.

~Revelation 14:13

(sung in Latin) Let perpetual light shine upon them, O Lord,
With your saints forever, for you are merciful.

Grant them eternal rest, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.

Liturgist: To love kindness expressed in acts both big and small,

Congregation: And to people of all races, abilities, ages, and beliefs.

Liturgist: To walk humbly with our God in all the circumstances of our lives,

(1) time; (2) money; (3) body; (4) community; and (5) work. Each week, we’ll dive into different aspects of stewardship with the lens of our faith: (1) time; (2) money; (3) body; (4) community; and (5) work. Scanned copies of the chapters we’ll discuss this week are available, but not required to read ahead of time. ### OUR CALL TO RACIAL JUSTICE: Every Voice Heard

As midterm elections approach, it is a good time to remind ourselves of the privilege and responsibility we have as members of a democratic nation to vote. Unfortunately, equitable access to voting rights continues to be denied to many people in our country. Please take some time in the coming weeks to learn about how suppressed voices can be lifted to ensure everyone can practice their right to vote. Please checkout the Racial Justice page on our website to learn more about this importance concern.

WINTER CLOTHES FOR REFUGEES

Our friends at World Relief have a great need for winter clothes for adult refugees/immigrants coming to Chicago. For the long winter ahead, they will need children and adult winter clothing which includes, hats, scarves, gloves, coats and boots. FPCW had a successful winter clothing drive for World Relief in the fall of 2016 and members were very generous in their donations. We will have a drop-off location near the Narthex for the next several weeks to accommodate your gifts. Your participation in this request is greatly appreciated.

THE RACIAL JUSTICE COMMITTEE

Is exploring the possibility of sponsoring a civil rights history pilgrimage in the fall 2023, including visits to Atlanta, Birmingham, Selma, and Montgomery. The three-day journey will include visits to landmarks from the American Civil Rights movement, giving us the opportunity to better understand our past and current national identity. During our time together, we plan to travel, dine, learn, pray, reflect and connect with one another. If this is something that might interest you, please join us for an informational meeting in the Chapel after worship on Sunday, November 13. The trip will be open to individuals, couples, and families. We are interested in getting your ideas about the trip and how we can best prepare for the journey ahead as we are just getting started in our planning. Questions about the meeting or preliminary plans? Please contact Mary Watt at mhw1117@gmail.com.

CONGRATULATIONS TO REV. abby mohaupt (who regularly worships here)

For receiving the Women of Faith award, given annually by the PCUSA since 1986!
