

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF WILMETTE
Sunday, January 22nd, 2023
Third Sunday in Epiphany
Experience God. Grow Disciples. Transform Lives.

Welcome to worship at First Presbyterian Church of Wilmette! We're so glad you're here. Whether you're a long-time member or first-time visitor, we are blessed to have you with us. We hope joining us for worship today will nurture your heart and transform your mind. You are loved and never alone!

Our mission statement here is “Experience God. Grow Disciples. Transform Lives.” As a church, we strive to be about that simple and challenging work day after day, in season and out of season. The COVID-19 pandemic has dramatically altered our lives, but it has also revealed what is most important. As we lean into what the weeks and months ahead will be like, we will continue to pray for one another. We will keep growing as followers of Christ. We will keep loving and listening to our neighbors. We will keep the hand to plow, working to embody God's dream for the world. We will keep reminding ourselves that we are a work in progress.

As we continue both in-person and livestreamed services, we are committed to keeping everyone safe and finding fresh and creative ways to worship together. We value your feedback – let us know what is going well and what could be better!

- A worship bulletin will be available (hardcopy in person or pdf online)
- Please join in the liturgy and prayers and passing of the peace, as directed
- The offering plate will be available to place a cash or check gift in before or after the service
- Join us after worship for Fellowship Hour in the Church Lounge (Main level—across from Office)

We're so glad to be worshipping with you in person and online! You are loved and never alone, friends.

With gratitude in Christ,

Pastors Jeff Lehn, Laura Sherwood, Kara Smith-Laubenstein and Rev. Dr. Lolly Dominski

Spiritual Practice for Epiphany

The “Be Still” Prayer

The “Be Still” prayer is an important and simple spiritual practice I first learned from Fr. Richard Rohr. You can pray it anytime and anywhere - during a stressful episode in the hospital, when stuck in thick traffic, before you head to bed at night. “Be still and know that I am God” comes from Psalm 46, verse 11. To pray this prayer, take a deep breath and center yourself in God's loving, gracious presence. Then say “Be still and know that I am God.” Pause for a moment to rest in the reality of God's company and companionship. Then repeat the verse several times, leaving off a word or a couple of words each time. The entire prayer goes as follows:

Be still and know that I am God

Be still and know that I am

Be still and know

Be still

Be

Move into a period of silent reflection, with your palms facing upward in a posture of receptivity.

PRELUDE

ENTRANCE OF THE LIGHT

The Acolyte brings in the light to remind us that we have gathered in the light of Christ.

WELCOME AND COMMON LIFE

CALL TO WORSHIP

The Lord is our light and our salvation; the Lord is the strength of our lives.

Whom, then, shall we fear? We will take heart, and wait for the Lord.

The Lord knows our needs, and the desires of our hearts.

The Lord seeks what is best for us, and is always with us.

Praise the Lord!

The Lord's name be praised!

OPENING HYMN NO. 187 - *Savior, Like a Shepherd Lead Us

BRADBURY

CALL TO CONFESSION

We come before God this morning seeking wholeness, in a world that is broken. Let us confess the ways in which we have contributed to this brokenness, so that we may be part of the healing – for others, the earth, and ourselves. Let us begin with silent prayer.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (unison)

And now, let us pray in unison:

We confess, O Lord, that we need spiritual renewal. Putting band-aids on the sins of our spirits will not do. We know that our spirits need an overhaul. Our emotions need to be fine-tuned that they may repel anger and resonate with kindness. Our minds need adjusting that they may be more in tune with the truths that come from you. Our hearts need to beat with sincere caring and love for all of your children, of whatever race, whatever gender identity and sexual orientation, whatever social standing. Our hands and feet need to be guided into your service, that we may work to solve our planet's problems, rather than be the creators of them. In short, we need a refining of our spirits, O God, and only you can adequately give us this blessing. We ask for the healing power of your Holy Spirit. Amen.

ASSURANCE OF FORGIVENESS

Friends, be confident that through Jesus Christ we are forgiven by God.

So, go from here today and forgive others. We are reconciled to God. Go and seek to be reconciled with others.

We are loved by God. Let us go out and love others. Thanks be to God! Amen.

SHARING THE PEACE OF CHRIST

The peace of Christ be with you!

And also with you!

CHILDREN'S CHAPEL

Children are invited to share the peace and gather with leaders to go to the Chapel to continue to worship together in an age-appropriate and meaningful way. They will return to sit with their families toward the end of worship service in the Sanctuary.

CONGREGATIONAL RESPONSE - Hymn No. 137 - He Came Down

He came down that we may have love; he came down that we may have love;
He came down that we may have love; hallelujah forevermore.

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION

Let us pray together in unison for the illumination of the Holy Spirit:

Holy God, at creation when your Spirit hovered over the watery chaos, you spoke, and creation sprang forth. Send your Spirit to hover over the chaos of our lives, and through your Word that we are about to hear, may your creative power once again bring forth meaning, growth and beauty. Amen.

SCRIPTURE READING - John 10:11-18 (pp. in the New Testament)

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God!

SERMON - "Beautiful Shepherd and Joyful Sheep!"

Rev. Laura Sherwood

DUET - The Good Shepherd

Jana Alayra & Tim Macres

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE AND LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

CALL FOR OFFERING

God has abundantly blessed us, and God calls us to be a community that extends to others through the sharing of our love, our talents, and our material resources. We have many ways to serve, and multiple ways to make a financial contribution - please consult your bulletin or the slide on your screen. Let us bring God our offerings with joy, and with gratitude for all the ways in which God lovingly cares for us.

Give online here

We invite you to give via our church website www.fpcw.org (see QR code), our smartphone app, or by sending a check to the church office. An offering plate is also available in the Narthex. We are grateful for your generosity!

CONGREGATIONAL RESPONSE - The Doxology (OLD HUNDREDTH)

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; Praise God all creatures here below.

Praise God above, ye heavenly host; Creator, Christ, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

PRAYER OF DEDICATION (unison)

Loving God, you gave the world the greatest gift of all, in Jesus Christ.

We respond by giving you what is precious to us.

Grow in us the willingness to forego some of our luxuries in life so that others may have the necessities of life. Help us to remember those who are forgotten by us too often – those who do not have warm homes, full cupboards, or even clean water. Use our offerings and us, we pray, to bring equity and peace to all on earth.

Amen.

RECOGNITION OF REV. LAURA SHERWOOD

ANTHEM - The Lord Bless You and Keep You

John Rutter

The Lord bless you and keep you;
The Lord make His face to shine to shine upon you and be gracious,
The Lord lift up the light of his countenance upon you and give you peace. Amen.

~Numbers 6:24

SENDING HYMN NO. 542 - God Be With You Till We Meet Again

GOD BE WITH YOU

FOLLOWING THE LIGHT

The Acolyte carries the light as we go out, to remind us that we both follow and carry Christ's Light into the World.

CHARGE AND BENEDICTION

Let us go now out into the world in peace,

Having courage and holding on to what is good,

Returning no one evil for evil,

Supporting the weak, helping the suffering,

Honoring all people,

And loving and serving the Lord, while rejoicing in the Holy Spirit.

And may our loving and all-powerful God bless, preserve, and keep us, this day, this week, and forevermore. Amen.

POSTLUDE -

After worship all are invited to gather in the Lounge for a fellowship reception to show our appreciation and gratitude for Pastor Laura Sherwood.
Cake and ice cream will be served

Our Common Life

Week of January 22nd, 2023

Welcome, Kara! Our New Associate Pastor

What a joy to welcome and officially call Rev. Kara Smith-Laubenstein to be our next installed Associate Pastor on Sunday, January 8!

Kara officially began her ministry with us on Tuesday, January 17th.

Kara's church email is: ksmithlaubenstein@fpcw.org

With the joy of Kara's arrival comes the sadness of saying goodbye to Pastor Laura, who has served alongside us with such creativity and resilience the past two years as Interim Associate Pastor. Laura will be with us through January 31 (the end of her contract, with a couple of weeks for her and Kara to overlap). Today, PL will preach for the last time in worship. If you'd like to express your gratitude to Laura, please send a card to the church office. We will share words of thanks for her today and will celebrate afterward with a cake and ice cream in the Lounge.

Let's be the Church together...on-line.

REALM - our new cloud-based Church Directory and database system - Launches next Wednesday, January 25th.

Here's what to expect:

- ◆ Every adult with an email on record will receive a Realm Invite link.
- ◆ Follow the link to set up your profile account with a unique username and password.
- ◆ Verify and update all information for yourself and any children in your household. (If you would like those who are 13 and older to manage their own profile account, please request an invitation for them from the Church Office, office@fpcw.org).
- ◆ Help will be offered to anyone who wishes or needs to input information manually.
- ◆ A printed directory will be offered by request once a majority of the information has been updated.

More information will follow next week with helpful suggestions as you prepare to set-up your profile.

We will have a Realm Leadership Team and include those names in communication next week.

Beginning Sunday, January 29th, a Realm Help area will be available following worship to answer questions and help you directly on your laptop, phone, or other device.

All of this is for the Launch phase - to get as many people signed-in as possible to update information.

Realm can help us do much more and those functions will be incorporated in stages so that we can all learn and practice together.

If you have any questions at this point, please contact Pastor Laura at lsherwood@fpcw.org.

Shorefront Legacy Center Traveling Exhibit Open in Our Chapel January 29

The Racial Justice Committee is pleased to announce that Evanston’s Shorefront Legacy Center’s traveling exhibit will be open in our Chapel on January 29 from 11 am to noon. The exhibit focuses on Black History on Chicago’s Suburban North Shore. The center is a non-profit organization dedicated to recording, studying, and preserving the experiences of African Americans living in Chicago's North Shore communities, particularly Evanston, Glencoe, and Lake Forest. Founding director Dino Robinson will speak during our service and then stay after to answer any questions. Please plan to grab your coffee and cookies and join us in the Chapel. The exhibit will remain through the end of February. We will be holding community open houses from 1-3 pm on February 5 and 26.

Racial Discrimination in Housing

Although the Fair Housing Act was signed into law in 1968, housing discrimination still exists. Fair housing laws are intended to protect people from discrimination in housing transactions such as rentals, sales, lending, and insurance. Unfortunately, racial discrimination in housing still persists today, contributing to the ever-growing disparities in wealth, education, health and employment opportunities.

The effects of racial segregation caused by redlining and other inequitable housing practices decreases home appreciation values, putting Black people at a disadvantage for building equity and passing on generational wealth. Racially segregated neighborhoods also manifest in the form of food deserts, racialized poverty and underfunded education from low property values. Please visit the resources below to learn more about how cities became racially segregated, and ways we can ensure fair and equitable housing for all.

Congratulations, Ken!

Last week, we received word from Ken Crews, our former Director of Youth Ministries, that he is getting ordained this upcoming Sunday, January 22, at 4pm at First Presbyterian Church of Valparaiso, Indiana! We are thrilled for Ken and the church. What a gift to be a part of his formation as a pastor here at FPCW. We send our love, prayers and best wishes to Ken, Heather, Owen, and Evey on this very special day.

Presbytery of Wabash Valley and First Presbyterian Church of Valparaiso invite you to join us in presence and prayer to joyfully celebrate a worship service for 2023 Stewardship Update - We're Almost There!

Thank you for your commitment and generosity to the life and ministry of our church - every gift of every size matters!

We are almost there with our 2023 stewardship drive, "Together for Joy." As of today, we have received financial commitments from 103 households for a total of $810,639. We are just shy of our goal of $845,000. If you haven't yet submitted your pledge and are able to do so in the next few days, it will allow the Session to plan for our 2023 budget. You can mail a pledge card to the church office, submit one in worship on Sunday or pledge on line on our website.

Thank you for your past support of FPCW, whether it has been financial, elbow grease or any other method of showing support. You have helped us weather the pandemic and to grow into who we are and who God desires us to be. We are grateful to be "together for joy" with you!

AFF Class: "The Forgotten Books of the Bible"

Sundays 8:45-9:45am in the Lounge and on Zoom Jan. 8-Feb. 6

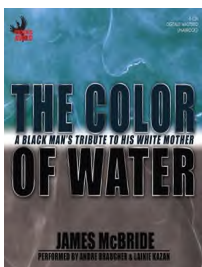

Join Pastor Jeff as we explore five "forgotten" books of the Bible together: Song of Songs, Ruth, Ecclesiastes, Lamentations and Esther. In the Jewish tradition, these five books are known as the "Five Scrolls" because they each play a role during the major religious holidays: Passover, Sukkot, Purim and so on. In the Christian tradition, by contrast, these books are largely overlooked, seldom preached on and come up only occasionally in Bible studies. But they deserve much more attention since they address pressing issues like grief, sexuality, purpose, ethnic identity, and power.

Using Robert Williamson Jr.'s recent book, The Forgotten Books of the Bible: Recovering the Five Scrolls for Today, this hybrid class will wrestle with what these books have to teach us today. The class meets in person in the Lounge and virtually via Zoom from 8:45-9:45am on Sundays, from January 8 through February 6 (Zoom Link; Meeting ID: 840 3593 7190; Password: 815640).

Pastor Jeff Lehn's new podcast.

To access Jeff's podcast open the most recent Daily Bread emailed to you on Tuesday (Daily Bread is also posted on our website, News and Publications Page) and available on the front page of our website under "Featured News." Jeff's podcasts are also available on Apple and Spotify. If you could rate or review it, subscribe to it or share it with a friend, I'd be really grateful. And I would love to hear from you (shoot me an email at thedailyedify@gmail.com) with show ideas, what's helpful, what's not, what could be better. With gratitude in Christ, Pastor Jeff

Book Group's next meeting will be Wednesday, February 15, 7 pm in the Lounge. The book the group will be discussing is "The Color of Water: A Black Man's Tribute to His White Mother," by James McBride.
