FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF WILMETTE
Sunday, March 19th, 2023
Fourth Sunday in Lent
Experience God. Grow Disciples. Transform Lives.

Welcome to worship at First Presbyterian Church of Wilmette! We're so glad you're here. Whether you're a long-time member or first-time visitor, we are blessed to have you with us. We hope joining us for worship today will nurture your heart and transform your mind. You are loved and never alone!

Our mission statement here is “Experience God. Grow Disciples. Transform Lives.” As a church, we strive to be about that simple and challenging work day after day, in season and out of season. The COVID-19 pandemic has dramatically altered our lives, but it has also revealed what is most important. As we lean into what the weeks and months ahead will be like, we will continue to pray for one another. We will keep growing as followers of Christ. We will keep loving and listening to our neighbors. We will keep the hand to plow, working to embody God's dream for the world. We will keep reminding ourselves that we are a work in progress.

As we continue both in-person and livestreamed services, we are committed to keeping everyone safe and finding fresh and creative ways to worship together. We value your feedback – let us know what is going well and what could be better!

- A worship bulletin will be available (hardcopy in person or pdf online)
- Please join in the liturgy and prayers and passing of the peace, as directed
- The offering plate will be available to place a cash or check gift in before or after the service
- Join us after worship for Fellowship Hour in the Church Lounge (Main level—across from Office)

We're so glad to be worshipping with you in person and online! You are loved and never alone, friends.

With gratitude in Christ,

Pastors Jeff Lehn, Kara Smith-Laubenstein and Rev. Dr. Lolly Dominski

Spiritual Practice: Hope

This Lent, we are focused on the theme of hope, using the recent book by MaryAnn McKibben Dana as our guide, “Hope: A User’s Manual.”

Hope is a potent spiritual practice with the power to pull us through difficult times. It is usually described with light metaphors — a ray, a beam, a glimmer of hope; the break in the clouds; the light at the end of the dark tunnel. It is often discovered in unexpected places.

The posture of hope can be learned with practice. Certain attitudes support it. One is patience, an ability to tolerate delays, a willingness to let events unfold in their own time. The other is courage, an attitude of confidence even when facing the unknown. A third is persistence, the determination to keep going no matter what happens. We have hope when we can say, all will be well, and we mean it.

There are many faithful ways to embody hope in different seasons of our lives. How might you lean into this spiritual practice more intentionally during the season of Lent?

PRELUDE - Prelude on BEACH SPRING

ZACH UNKE

ENTRANCE OF THE LIGHT

The Acolyte brings in the light to remind us that we have gathered in the light of Christ.

WELCOME AND COMMON LIFE

CALL TO WORSHIP

Children of God, welcome!

Welcome to this place of love and grace.

Welcome to this place of hope and perseverance.

God invites all of us to be a part of the beloved community.

God invites all of us to share in the good news:

We are welcome, just as we are. We are loved, just as we are.

In gratitude for all of this, let us worship God, tender and just.

OPENING HYMN NO. 716 - God Whose Giving Knows No Ending

BEACH SPRING

CALL TO CONFESSION

We don't always get everything right, and when that happens, sometimes we hurt other people or ourselves.

God knows that, and wants to help us make things right. We start by telling God the whole truth. Let us now pray to God about those things. Let us begin with silent prayer.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (unison)

Holy God, giver of life and forgiver of sin, we come to you now with hope – hope that you will always love us, hope that you will not hold our sin against us, hope that you will turn us around from what is evil, toward what is good. Walk with us in this holy season, and help us to look clearly at our lives and the world, that we may embrace all with love. Through Christ we pray. Amen.

ASSURANCE OF FORGIVENESS

Dear Child of God, in our world it is often hard to remember that God loves you just as you are. God loves you not because you are good. God loves you, period. God loves us not because we are loveable. No, we are loveable precisely because God loves us. As you hear this water fill the basin of the baptismal font, know that this water is a symbol that God forgives our sins and empowers us for service. Thanks be to God. Amen!

SHARING THE PEACE OF CHRIST

The peace of Christ be with you!

And also with you!

CHILDREN'S CHAPEL

Children are invited to remain in worship and receive the worship drama offered by our Midweek Meetup children.

CONGREGATIONAL RESPONSE - Hymn No. 791 - For You, My God, I Wait (verse 6, sing twice)

O God, you are my hope; I know that you forgive.
Your love redeems me from the depths so I may rise and live.

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION

Let us pray together in unison for the illumination of the Holy Spirit.

Holy God, at creation when your Spirit hovered over the watery chaos, you spoke, and creation sprang forth. Send your Spirit to hover over the chaos of our lives, and through your Word that we are about to hear, may your creative power once again bring forth meaning, growth, and beauty. Amen.

SCRIPTURE READING - Ephesians 2:8-10 (pg. 192 in the New Testament)

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God!

MESSAGE - The Artist and Her Children: A Parable

Adapted by Lindley Traynor from the book "The Festival of Art" by Gerald A. Pottebaum

SONG OF RESPONSE

We are God's works of art...created in Christ Jesus to do good works... Repeat
Which God prepared...which God prepared in advance for us to do, Ephesians 2...Ephesians 2 verse 10
*Repeat.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE AND THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

CALL FOR OFFERING

All that we have is a gift of God's grace. All that we have finds its source in the opportunities, resources and people that God has blessed us with. And God calls us to bless others by sharing what we have – our love, our talents, and our material resources – with others. We have many ways to serve, and multiple ways to make a financial contribution - please consult your bulletin or the slide on your screen. In loving gratitude for all the ways in which God has blessed and provided for us, let us bring God our offerings.

Give online here

We invite you to give via our church website www.fpcw.org (see QR code), our smartphone app, or by sending a check to the church office. An offering plate is also available in the Narthex. We are grateful for your generosity!

ANTHEM - Kyrie Eleison (Have Mercy)

Keith Getty and Stuart Townend

CONGREGATIONAL RESPONSE - The Doxology (OLD HUNDREDTH)

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God all creatures here below.
Praise God above, ye heavenly host;
Creator, Christ, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

PRAYER OF DEDICATION (unison)

God of the old and the young, the straight-laced and the unrefined, the zealous and the wary, take this offering of our lives and resources and make of it a new possibility. Change hearts and lives with it. Mend relationships by it. Anchor us to hope through it. Show us the life that really is life. Amen.

SENDING HYMN NO. 700 – *I'm Gonna Live So God Can Use Me

I'M GONNA LIVE

FOLLOWING THE LIGHT

The Acolyte carries the light as we go out, to remind us that we both follow and carry Christ's Light into the World.

CHARGE AND BENEDICTION

Go Now in Peace

POSTLUDE

Join us after worship in the Lounge for Fellowship Hour.
Cookies, coffee and lemonade will be served.

Lent 2023 Theme: “Hope: A User’s Manual”

This Lent at First Pres, we are focusing on hope. Few theological ideas are more resourceful and generative for our time than this one! Using MaryAnn McKibben Dana’s new book, “Hope: A User’s Manual,” as our guide, we are exploring what hope is, what it is not, how it lives in our body, finds best expression in story and is, in the end, a practice we must keep at again and again. In Sunday worship, we reflect on Scripture passages that touch on hope. We invite you to purchase a copy of Dana’s book (available in the church office for $12, or via your book retailer) and read along with us. It promises to be a rich and thoughtful journey as we rediscover hope together!

Lent 2023 Adult Faith Formation Class: “Hope: A User’s Manual”

Sundays, 8:45-9:45 am through April 2

In-person in the Lounge; and over Zoom

Join Pastor Jeff for this six-week Lenten study that serves as a deeper dive into our broader theme for the season: “Hope: A User’s Manual,” drawing on the recent book written by MaryAnn McKibben Dana. Each week, we look at one of the book’s six sections. No pre-reading required – just come and grow with us as we together seek to wrestle with what hope is, what it is not, and to find it even in hopeless times. The hybrid class meets on Sundays from 8:45-9:45 am in the Lounge and virtually via Zoom (use the link in the Daily Bread and the Saturday evening email; Meeting ID: 840 3593 7190; Password: 815640).

Easter Flowers

Easter lilies and hydrangeas will beautify the church during the Easter season. You may purchase a plant in memory of a loved one or in appreciation of a special person.

If you wish to buy a lily or hydrangea, please complete the form in the bulletin and leave it in the church office or mail it to the church along with your check by Sunday, April 2nd. Make checks payable to fpcw.

In November, First Pres will be sponsoring a racial justice pilgrimage to a number of important historic civil rights sites in Birmingham, Selma and Montgomery, Alabama. While specific plans for the pilgrimage are still in the development stage, the itinerary will most likely include the Edmund Pettis Bridge in Selma; the Legacy Museum, the National Memorial for Peace and Justice and the Civil Rights Museum in Montgomery; the Civil Rights Memorial, and the 16th Street Baptist Church in Birmingham.

The tour will begin in Birmingham on Thursday morning, November 2nd and end back in Birmingham on Sunday, November 5th. Travel arrangements include direct flights from/to O'Hare or carpooling with other participants if that is preferred.

Cost of the trip is estimated to be around $2000 per person...although costs are yet to be finalized. A $500 deposit is required by April 15 to hold your place in the tour group.

Kenilworth Union Church sponsored a similar trip last fall for members of its congregation. Trip leader Dana Connell will speak about how that experience impacted his life and the lives of other tour participants during our 10 am worship service today. Dana and his wife Laura will answer questions and provide additional information about the trip during Fellowship Hour following the service. You can get a glimpse of the trip's impact on participants by listening to the post-trip program they gave after their return. Here is the YouTube link to that program: https://www.youtube.com/live/7ikxaGzm_8A?feature=share.

If you have questions or would like more information about the tour, please contact Mary Watt at mhw1117@gmail.com or reach out to another member of the Racial Justice Committee...and mark your calendars to save the dates of November 02-05.

For Our Prayers

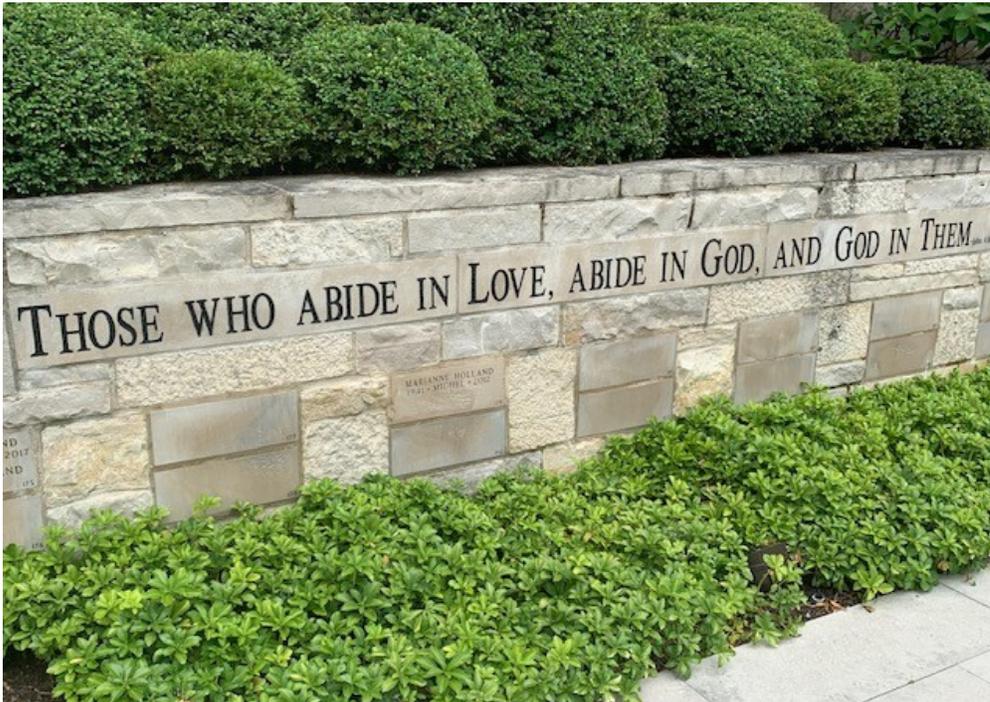

Please pray for those in the midst of illness, walking through a season of grief, or homebound and unable to join us this day.

Pray especially for Colleen McAllister whose mother, Dorothy Joan Karp, died on March 7.

Pray in celebration of Madeline Weston as she departs from her fourteen years with us, travels to Florida, and returns to new pastimes in Winnetka.

For countries experiencing war, extreme weather and natural disasters.

- The country of war torn Ukraine.
- All people and places impacted by extreme weather.
- The devastation from the recent earthquake in Syria and Turkey.
