FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF WILMETTE

Sunday, March 12th, 2023

Third Sunday in Lent

Experience God. Grow Disciples. Transform Lives.

Welcome to worship at First Presbyterian Church of Wilmette! We're so glad you're here. Whether you're a long-time member or first-time visitor, we are blessed to have you with us. We hope joining us for worship today will nurture your heart and transform your mind. You are loved and never alone!

Our mission statement here is “Experience God. Grow Disciples. Transform Lives.” As a church, we strive to be about that simple and challenging work day after day, in season and out of season. The COVID-19 pandemic has dramatically altered our lives, but it has also revealed what is most important. As we lean into what the weeks and months ahead will be like, we will continue to pray for one another. We will keep growing as followers of Christ. We will keep loving and listening to our neighbors. We will keep the hand to plow, working to embody God's dream for the world. We will keep reminding ourselves that we are a work in progress.

As we continue both in-person and livestreamed services, we are committed to keeping everyone safe and finding fresh and creative ways to worship together. We value your feedback – let us know what is going well and what could be better!

- A worship bulletin will be available (hardcopy in person or pdf online)
- Please join in the liturgy and prayers and passing of the peace, as directed
- The offering plate will be available to place a cash or check gift in before or after the service
- Join us after worship for Fellowship Hour in the Church Lounge (Main level—across from Office)

We're so glad to be worshipping with you in person and online! You are loved and never alone, friends.

With gratitude in Christ,

Pastors Jeff Lehn, Kara Smith-Laubenstein and Rev. Dr. Lolly Dominski

Spiritual Practice: Hope

This Lent, we are focused on the theme of hope, using the recent book by MaryAnn McKibben Dana as our guide, “Hope: A User’s Manual.”

Hope is a potent spiritual practice with the power to pull us through difficult times. It is usually described with light metaphors — a ray, a beam, a glimmer of hope; the break in the clouds; the light at the end of the dark tunnel. It is often discovered in unexpected places.

The posture of hope can be learned with practice. Certain attitudes support it. One is patience, an ability to tolerate delays, a willingness to let events unfold in their own time. The other is courage, an attitude of confidence even when facing the unknown. A third is persistence, the determination to keep going no matter what happens. We have hope when we can say, all will be well, and we mean it.

There are many faithful ways to embody hope in different seasons of our lives. How might you lean into this spiritual practice more intentionally during the season of Lent?

Join us after worship in the Lounge for Fellowship Hour.
Cookies, coffee and lemonade will be served.

PRELUDE - Prelude and Fugue in f minor

J.S. BACH

ENTRANCE OF THE LIGHT

The Acolyte brings in the light to remind us that we have gathered in the light of Christ.

WELCOME AND COMMON LIFE

CALL TO WORSHIP

Children of God, welcome!

Welcome to this place of love and grace.

Welcome to this place of hope and perseverance.

God invites all of us to be a part of the beloved community.

God invites all of us to share in the good news:

We are welcome, just as we are. We are loved, just as we are.

In gratitude for all of this, let us worship God, tender and just.

OPENING HYMN NO. 432 - How Clear Is Our Vocation, Lord

REPTON

CALL TO CONFESSION

We don't always get everything right, and when that happens, sometimes we hurt other people or ourselves.

God knows that, and wants to help us make things right. We start by telling God the whole truth. Let us now pray to God about those things.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (unison)

Holy God, giver of life and forgiver of sin, we come to you now with hope – hope that you will always love us, hope that you will not hold our sin against us, hope that you will turn us around from what is evil, toward what is good. Walk with us in this holy season, and help us to look clearly at our lives and the world, that we may embrace all with love. Through Christ we pray. Amen.

ASSURANCE OF FORGIVENESS

Dear Child of God, in our world it is often hard to remember that God loves you just as you are. God loves you not because you are good. God loves you, period. God loves us not because we are loveable. No, we are loveable precisely because God loves us. As you hear this water fill the basin of the baptismal font, know that this water is a symbol that God forgives our sins and empowers us for service. Thanks be to God. Amen!

SHARING THE PEACE OF CHRIST

The peace of Christ be with you!

And also with you!

CHILDREN'S CHAPEL

Children are invited to share the peace and gather with leaders to go to the Chapel to continue to worship together in an age-appropriate and meaningful way. They will return to sit with their families toward the end of worship service in the Sanctuary.

CONGREGATIONAL RESPONSE - Hymn No. 791 - For You, My God, I Wait (verse 6, sing twice)

O God, you are my hope; I know that you forgive.

Your love redeems me from the depths so I may rise and live.

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION

Let us pray together in unison for the illumination of the Holy Spirit.

Holy God, at creation when your Spirit hovered over the watery chaos, you spoke, and creation sprang forth. Send your Spirit to hover over the chaos of our lives, and through your Word that we are about to hear, may your creative power once again bring forth meaning, growth, and beauty. Amen.

SCRIPTURE READING - John 1:14 (pg. 92 in the New Testament)

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God!

SERMON - “Hope Lives in the Body”

Rev. Jeff Lehn

HYMN OF RESPONSE NO. 850 - In a Deep, Unbounded Darkness (Choir will sing the verses, congregation please sing the last line)

DIVINUM MYSTERIUM

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE AND THE LORD’S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors;
and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

CALL FOR OFFERING

All that we have is a gift of God’s grace. All that we have finds its source in the opportunities, resources and people that God has blessed us with. And God calls us to bless others by sharing what we have – our love, our talents, and our material resources – with others. We have many ways to serve, and multiple ways to make a financial contribution - please consult your bulletin or the slide on your screen. In loving gratitude for all the ways in which God has blessed and provided for us, let us bring God our offerings.

*We invite you to give via our church website www.fpcw.org (see QR code), our smartphone app, or by sending a check to the church office. An offering plate is also available in the Narthex.
We are grateful for your generosity!*

TESTIMONY - David Bennett

ANTHEM - All Flesh is Grass

Chris Massa

*So brief a life, and then an endless life or endless death;
So brief a life, then endless peace or strife: Whoso considereth how man but like a flower or shoot of grass blooms an hour, well may sigh ‘Alas!’
So brief a life and then an endless grief or endless joy;
So brief a life, then ruin or relief: what solace, what annoy of Time needs dwelling on?
It is, it was, it is done, while we sigh ‘Alas!’
Yet saints are singing in a happy hope forecasting pleasure,
Bright eyes of faith enlarging all their scope;
Saints love beyond Time’s measure: where love is, there is bliss that will not pass;
Where love is, dies away ‘Alas!’*

~Christina Rossetti

CONGREGATIONAL RESPONSE - The Doxology (OLD HUNDREDTH)

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God all creatures here below.
Praise God above, ye heavenly host;
Creator, Christ, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

PRAYER OF DEDICATION (unison)

God of the old and the young, the straight-laced and the unrefined, the zealous and the wary, take this offering of our lives and resources and make of it a new possibility. Change hearts and lives with it. Mend relationships by it. Anchor us to hope through it. Show us the life that really is life. Amen.

SENDING HYMN NO. 772 – *Live Into Hope

TRURO

FOLLOWING THE LIGHT

The Acolyte carries the light as we go out, to remind us that we both follow and carry Christ's Light into the World.

CHARGE AND BENEDICTION

POSTLUDE

Join us after worship in the Lounge for Fellowship Hour.
Cookies, coffee and lemonade will be served.

Our Common Life

Week of March 12th, 2023

Annual Meeting

The Session has rescheduled the Annual Meeting to be held on Sunday, March 19th, at 9:15 am (breakfast available at 9 am) in WMFC to give us more time to publicize the meeting and to experiment with a different way of doing it. A Zoom option will also be available for those who need to join virtually.

Amy Miller has kindly agreed to prepare breakfast for us on March 19th, and we will gather around tables that morning in WMFC to reflect on the past year, to have fellowship and do the formal business items required at our Annual Meetings (presentation of 2023 budget, approval of Terms of Call for our pastors, etc). After the meeting, we'll head upstairs for worship in the sanctuary, as our kids will be leading us, and presenting a dramatized parable with music.

Holy Week

11:00 am - in-person/Livestream worship, Sanctuary

Easter Flowers

Easter lilies and hydrangeas will beautify the church during the Easter season. You may purchase a plant in memory of a loved one or in appreciation of a special person.

If you wish to buy a lily or hydrangea, please complete the form in the bulletin and leave it in the church office or mail it to the church along with your check by Sunday, April 2nd. Checks should be made payable to: fpcw.

Lent 2023 Theme: “Hope: A User’s Manual”

This Lent at First Pres, we are focusing on hope. Few theological ideas are more resourceful and generative for our time than this one! Using MaryAnn McKibben Dana’s new book as our guide, Hope: A User’s Manual, we will be exploring what hope is, what it is not, how it lives in our body, finds best expression in story and is, in the end, a practice we must keep at again and again. In Sunday worship, we will reflect on Scripture passages that touch on hope and we invite you to purchase a copy (available in the church office for $12, or via your book retailer) and read along with us. It promises to be a rich and thoughtful journey together as we rediscover hope together!

Lent 2023 Adult Faith Formation Class

Sundays, 8:45-9:45 am (6 Weeks, Feb. 26 – April 2)

In-person in the Lounge; and over Zoom

2023 Lenten Adult Faith Class: “Hope: A User’s Manual”

Join Pastor Jeff for this six-week Lenten study that serves as a “deeper dive” into our broader theme for the season: “Hope: A User’s Manual,” drawing on the recent book written by MaryAnn McKibben Dana (she led a women’s retreat at our church back in 2019). Each week, we’ll look at one of the six sections of the book with the help of the reader’s guide: (1) What Hope Is Not; (2) What Hope Is; (3) Hope Lives in the Body; (4) Hope Travels in Story; (5) The Practice of Hope; and (6) Hope Beyond Hope. No pre-reading required – just come and grow with us as we together seek to wrestle with what hope is, what it is not and to find it even in hopeless times. The hybrid class will meet on Sundays from 8:45-9:45 am in person in the Lounge and virtually via Zoom during Lent (February 26 – April 2): Zoom Link is available in the Daily Bread and in the Saturday evening email.

In November, FPCW will be sponsoring a racial justice pilgrimage to a number of important historic civil rights sites in Birmingham, Selma and Montgomery, Alabama. While specific plans for the pilgrimage are still in the development stage, the itinerary will most likely include the Edmund Pettis Bridge in Selma; the Legacy Museum, the National Memorial for Peace and Justice and the Civil Rights Museum in Montgomery; the Civil Rights Memorial and the 16th Street Baptist Church in Birmingham.

The tour will begin in Birmingham on Thursday morning, November 2nd and end back in Birmingham on Sunday, November 5th. Travel arrangements include direct flights from/to O'Hare or carpooling with other participants if that is preferred.

The Book Group gathers each month on the 3rd Wednesday of the month. Next gathering will be on Wednesday March 15th at 7 pm in the Church Lounge. The book the group has chosen this month to read is “The Personal Librarian” by Marie Benedict. Interested in join this book group? Please join us, all are welcome.

Come join us on March 19th to hear the gospel proclaimed by some of the youngest members of our church family! The kids have been working hard, preparing music and a dramatized parable, based on one of the stories Jesus told. We hope you can make it for this very special worship service.
